

To Whom it may concern,

I started taking vocal lessons from Cheryl Saks the summer before I started high school. In the matter of months, I, as an aspiring singer, had improved my vocal technique one hundred percent. I no doubt give all of my credit to Cheryl and her uniquely adequate and qualified coaching techniques. Soon after I started vocal lessons with Cheryl, she encouraged me to start taking piano lessons also. This may have been the best choice I made in my life so far. It has only been 8 months and I can already play classical pieces of music by famous composers such as Chopin. Cheryl's inspiring and bright personality has invigorated me to try harder as a musician so I can conquer my future musical goals.

Not only is Cheryl there for me musically, but she is also there for me spiritually and mentally. She is more than just my vocal and piano teacher. Cheryl has taught me more about life than any other person I have known. I am even privileged enough to have the opportunity to baby-sit Cheryl's daughter, Sarah Anne, every week. I know that the opportunities Cheryl has given me and the teachings she has taught will never be forgotten. I am very grateful that Cheryl is in my life as my mentor, role model, and my inspiration.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Lhuillier
