To Whom It May Concern:

It has been almost 20 years since my husband and I decided to take piano lessons. One of my Sunday School students played the piano at a Christmas program at my church. I was so impressed with her performance that I asked her for her piano teacher's name. She gave me Cheryl Sak's name and phone number. My husband and I started taking piano lessons from Cheryl and found her to be a fine musician and gifted teacher. Along with getting a good knowledge of music we learned many piano pieces and established quite a repertoire.

At age 11, my daughter, came to a few of my piano lessons and decided she would like to take piano lessons. Cheryl started us off with mother/daughter duets and my daughter, now age 15 plays on NYSSMA level 6. Students gain confidence performing in public at Cheryl's recitals and their friends and relatives love to see them excelling. As a result of Cheryl's mentoring, my daughter now plays special piano music for two different churches. She has gotten a wonderful response to her performances and is always encouraged to play again.

I would whole-heartedly recommend Cheryl Saks for a piano/voice teacher. It is well worth the investment to have a gifted teacher like Cheryl.
